RAILROAD WAGE
QUESTION, LIKE
CAT, CAME BACKPresident Again Has Matter for His Consideration.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 2.—The whole railroad wage controversy was placed before President Wilson today for the third time since railroad labor filed its demands for a general increase in wages last summer.

In a letter to the President, B. M. Jewell, chairman of the railway committee which constitutes the labor party on the railroad wage board, said he regretted very much "to advise you of our failure to obtain any beneficial results from these conferences."

The employees, Mr. Jewell said, were keenly disappointed at the position taken by the railway executives' committee which announced last night a deadlock and the withdrawal of the railroad members from the conference.

Mr. Jewell did not ask the president to lay the wage controversy before the Railway Labor board, which is to be nominated by the president as provided in the transportation act and on which the public will have representation.

Presented Correspondence.
Attached to Mr. Jewell's letter was correspondence setting forth the attitude of the men and the executive committee.

Mr. T. W. White, for the railway executives, wrote that while an agreement as to wages might be reached by direct negotiations between representatives of the roads and the men the executives of the roads did not believe congress contemplated a settlement involving so great an addition to transportation costs without the public being represented in the conferences.

Replying to this letter Mr. Jewell said he believed the reason given by the managers for ending the negotiations was "not in accord with our understanding of the law."

"The attitude of your committee in failing to carry out the wishes of the president of the United States comes as a surprise to us," Mr. Jewell wrote to Mr. White. "It will result in keen disappointment to our constituents as well as the general public, both of whom are parties at interest and entitled to more consideration from the bi-partisan board than you have elected to give."

"We understand from this that your committee has definitely declined to assume the responsibility and perform the duty which is so clearly desired in the public interest, and which the transportation act, as we understand it contemplates; that of agreeing in conference upon rates of pay for railroad employees which are just and reasonable."

Union officials reiterated that, at the request of the president, they were going along to give the transportation act a fair trial, although they did not intend any of its provisions. They took the position that with the breaking up of the joint conference the whole matter was made more difficult since the union membership was becoming restive.

TURKS MAY GET
PEACE TREATY
EARLY IN MAYSupreme Council Expected to Frame It
April 19-22.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, April 2.—In French circles the expectation now is that the meeting of the supreme council of the peace conference in San Remo will be called for April 19 to 22. The Turkish peace delegates, it is understood will be invited to present themselves to the end of April to receive the peace terms.

It is pointed out here that the terms of the projected treaty with regard to a number of points were prepared by experts in the absence of the head of some of the allied governments. Premiers Millerand of France and Nitti of Italy having attended only the first sessions of the conference in London. Hence it will be necessary that a full session of the supreme council go over the whole project.

It is not anticipated that the session will be long and it is thought that the Turks may be able to begin their examination of the terms of the treaty early in May.

ISN'T WEDLOCKChas. Popp Fooled Her Until Today—Ceremony Finished.

Charles Popp and Miss Stella Pannfield were married in the office of the sheriff this morning at 10:30 by Justice Grover W. Gehant. The marriage is the outgrowth of more or less trouble that has been brought to the attention of both the city and county officers.

On Dec. 26 of last year, the couple applied at the office of County Clerk Fred G. Dimick for marriage license which was granted, both parties signing the record. Popp is said to have informed the woman that her signature being affixed to the record constituted the marriage ceremony and both are said to have lived together since that time. Their affairs have not been the most pleasant and last evening the police were summoned to East River street where the woman made certain allegations against Popp.

This morning she was the complainant to a charge preferred against Popp, which resulted in his being arrested by Deputy Robert Phillips on a statutory charge. Popp was brought to the sheriff's office and shortly afterward, Deputy Miller arrived upon the scene with the complainant. This morning the woman had become dependent over conditions and threatened to sue by shooting herself.

Both were taken before Justice Gehant at the court house and when Popp learned of the warrant which had been issued for his arrest, he was anxious to have the marriage ceremony performed, thus having the charge which had been preferred against him dropped. The woman also consented to this agreement and with many of the employees at the court house as witnesses, the couple were legally married and the criminal charge against Popp dismissed.

Making Effort to Get Broderick to Special Hospital

Commander Sherwood Dixon and the other officers of Dixon post of the American Legion have taken upon themselves a very difficult task, in an effort to secure the release of an ex-convict from the state hospital at Watertown and have him placed in a government hospital for treatment. On February 17, Hubert Broderick, aged 23, of Amboy, was committed to the Watertown hospital from the county court.

The legion officers believe that the young man is suffering from shell shock and that he would receive more thorough treatment in a government reclamation hospital. In one of his spells, the young man destroyed his discharge papers, and this action is making it a very difficult task for the legion officers to trace his service record, which is necessary in securing his release from the state institution and gaining him admission to a government hospital where he will receive treatment for shell shock.

Nearly 100 scars were found on the girl's body, District Attorney Lewis said.

SHOW DOWN WAS PALMER'S WISH
WITH BIG FIVE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 2.—Court proceedings against the "big five" Chicago packers were instituted because "it had come to the time for a show-down in the industry" Attorney General Palmer today told the house agriculture committee. The attorney general appearing in connection with pending regulatory legislation reviewed what he called the long campaign against the industry in court and before public opinion.

"It seemed to me that the thing had come to a point where the packers were either entitled to a clean bill of health," said Mr. Palmer, "or the public was entitled to a judgment of some sort against them."

The consent decree, finally agreed upon after the government had instituted suit, he said, was the result.

Met Just Complaints.
The consent decree, Mr. Palmer said, "met every just complaint that had been made by consumers, producers or competitors against the packers."

"It met them by a judgment, with means for enforcing it," the attorney general continued. "The managers and influential stockholders in the packing corporations can be convicted of contempt of court and imprisoned for any violation of its terms. This makes these five great packers butchers and nothing else. They are no longer a menace to the food tables of America with control of meat substitutes and all other foods."

"I got more for people by the civil action than I ever could by proceeding against them as criminals. No business man ever has been sent to jail for violation of the Sherman Act in all its history."

"Poison Out of Practice."
By leaving to the packers the use of refrigerator cars for transportation of meat only, he said, "we took the poison out of the practice."

"I wanted to accomplish five things: first, to take the packers out of the stock yard business, out of the terminal railroads, which entered the stock yards, and out of the live stock or market publications and keep them out."

"In detail, the plan is worked out so that the defendants themselves may present a plan to dispose of their interests, and if that plan is not approved by the court, then a method is made by which the court may fix the plan. That is designed for the purpose of permitting the producers themselves if they desired to be substituted in the ownership of the stockyards and terminal railroads for the packers."

Mr. Palmer said the other things he desired to accomplish were to take the packers out of the public storage warehouse business, the retail business and all the unrelated lines of business.

KINGDOM COMMUNITY AID—

The Kingdom Community Aid society held its regular meeting Wednesday, March 31, at the home of Mrs. Henry Hintz, with thirty-five members and ten visitors present. A delightfully jolly day was passed, each member occupying herself with her own needlework or crocheting. A business session followed the excellent scramble dinner. The assessment of the price of two dozen eggs from each member for the flower fund resulted in an addition of $14.75 to that fund. The ladies wish to thank the gentleman for the check presented to the fund in memory of his deceased wife, who was a faithful member of the organization from the time of its inception. They will always hold his kindly spirit in remembrance. Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Hintz, and Mrs. Spencer were appointed a committee to attend to the business in connection with the clothing of the recently adopted orphan. The society will care for a fourteen-year-old girl from the Nachusa Lutheran orphanage instead of the French orphan who was provided for last year. At the next meeting the members are asked to gather in full force to sew for Leona, the adopted girl. This meeting will be held on April 14th at the home of Mrs. Hoover.

M. E. MISSIONARY—

Mrs. Pope, the Tithing Secretary, gave a talk on tithing and Miss Callie Morgan was in charge of the Mystery Box—a question box, the questions for which are taken from the society organ, "The Missionary Friend." Miss Morgan also presented the matter of subscribing to "The Missionary Friend." The meeting was well attended with thirty-four members present. Two new members were taken in at this time. Excellent refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Our Candidate for President FRANK O. LOWDEN

Illinois presidential primaries Tuesday,
April 13.

SICK ROOM ATTENDANTS.

It should be of interest to those familiar with the nursing situation in Dixon and all over Illinois to know that the New York hospitals will soon have a one-year training course to relieve the nurse famine which is being felt so keenly the country over.

The Illinois Hospital association has reduced the minimum course for regular training to two years, but the hospital conference of New York City has taken a longer stride forward by establishing a one-year course in all its general hospitals. The report of the investigating committee, which was adopted by the conference, sums up the situation so concisely and sensibly that the Dispatch
quotes from it the following:

"A very large number of people find the expense of the nurse in case of illness in their families an increasing burden. In many of the cases, too, the services of the highly paid nurse are not necessary. The majority of private cases do not require the highest degree of skill and knowledge in a nurse. A woman who has had a certain amount of practical training can be a safe bedside attendant for the patient and give satisfaction to the family and to the physician.

"We are of the opinion that the need for such a class now exists. Who, then, shall undertake to create this class if not the hospitals that furnish the material at whose bed-sides these new attendants may receive their training?

"Your committee has given careful consideration to the question of the length of time necessary for training an attendant so that she may, under the physician's guidance, care for the patient efficiently. We are of the opinion that a candidate can be so trained in twelve months. We are of the opinion that more than one-half of this period should be spent in the children's ward,
one in the hospital for contagious diseases
and one month in a maternity hospital."

An interesting point decided by the conference was as to a name for these one-year graduates. It was admitted that the most sensible plan would be to call them "one-year nurses," as that would clearly state the extent of their qualifications, but as the registered nurses objected to any one calling herself a nurse who is not a registered nurse
as a result of the full course of training, the word "attendant" was hit upon and those who have taken the one-year course will be known as "hospital graduate attendants."

New York seems to be on the way to solving its nursing problem reasonably and intelligently.

DISEASE IN EAST.

The Trade and Commerce statistics sent out from Washington do not make mention of the fact, but the largest import of the United States from the Orient is Death. The history of disease shows that the most virulent and deadly diseases known to the western world have had their origin "somewhere
east of Suez."

It is now a matter of common knowledge that influenza made its first appearance in the mountains of Turkestan. It carried off more than one-half a million people in the United States in 1918 and 1919, and returned last winter for new victims.

Information collected by the Interchurch World Movement and just made public through its world survey reports, shows that influenza is not the first deadly disease to come from the Orient. China is the ancestral home of smallpox. The Black Death, which swept Europe in the 14th century and carried off approximately twenty million men, women and children, came from the East with a Chinese caravan of silks and spices. The bubonic plague, which still shows its appearance occasionally in New Orleans and California was also an import from China.

Only the other day a case of anthrax was reported in New York City and nine chances out of ten say the Interchurch experts, if the hair of the shaving brush from which the infection was received, could be traced to its original habitat, it would be to the back of some Chinese animal. A few years ago a number of persons died in Boston as a result of anthrox infection imported with Chinese hides.

As a matter of fact the amount of sickness
in the Far East is almost beyond the comprehension of the western mind. There are villages in China where every inhabitant has some form of tuberculosis. Four hundred thousand lepers are wandering unhindered through India. The Near-East is teeming with typhus.

To meet this situation the Interchurch World Movement is urging the enlistment of more medical missionaries to help clean up the plague spots; and it is in furtherance of this plan that the thirty Evangelical denominations participating in the Movement, have set aside the week of April 25 to May 2 for an intensive campaign in which the sum of $336,777.572 is to be raised for spreading the work of Christian Evangelism throughout the world.

A VOTE FOR LOWDEN.

The presidential primaries in this state are on Tuesday, April 13. Governor Frank O.
Lowden and General Leonard Wood are con-
testing for the republican vote in Illinois.
Wood is fighting hard to injure the Lowden vote in the governor's home state for a big Wood vote in Illinois would be a tremendous advantage to the military candidate in his national campaign. If you fail to go to the polls and register your vote for Lowden a week from next Tuesday you may be one of those stay-at-homes whose negligence might defeat the nomination of Illinois great war governor.

In this section of the country where we know Frank O. Lowden and have seen his ability as an executive and a statesman demonstrated so well, we are confident that Low-den would make a splendid president. We know the people of the United States would make no mistake in electing him. A vote for Lowden is a safe vote. Go to the presidential primaries on Tuesday, April 13, men and women of Lee county and cast a Lowden vote.

VOTE TUESDAY.

On Tuesday next, April 6, the men and women voters of Dixon township as well as all other townships in the county and state, are called upon to go to the polls and cast their ballots for their favorite candidate for various township offices. There is a contest in one office, that of assessor, for which Joseph Whitish and Benjamin F. Downing are candidates.

The interest you take in elections, important or otherwise, measures your fitness as a citizen. Go to your polling place next Tuesday and cast your ballot at the township election.

Last year I asked my best girl to become my wife, and she said "No!" But I got even with her. I married her mother. Then my father married the girl. Now I don't

When I married the girl's mother the girl became my

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

MR. PIG'S GREAT IDEA.

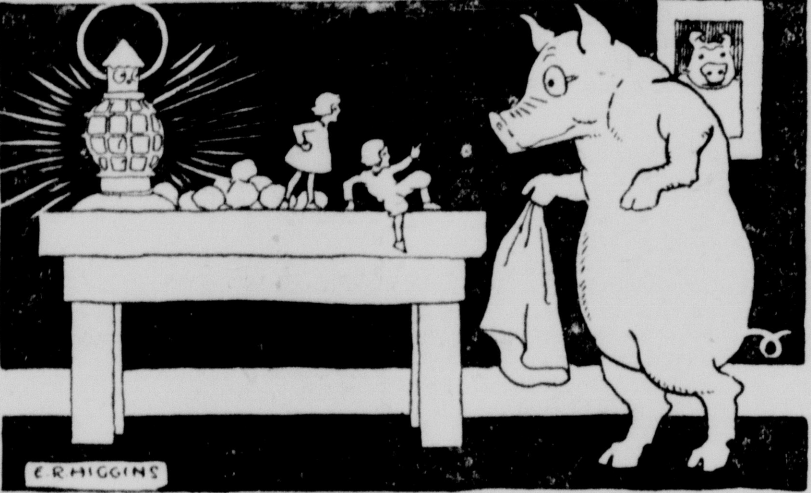

The next thing they knew the twins felt themselves dumped out of the bag, along with the lumpy things and the Mushroom.

"That's the very first time," a surprised voice repeated, "I ever heard truffles sneeze." For Nick had sneezed when the string tickled his nose.

Then Nancy and Nick understood everything. There stood Mr. Pig with an empty sack in his hand, looking at them, by the light of a lantern that stood on his kitchen table.

"Why, what's the matter here?" he cried, his mouth dropping open in surprise.

"That's what we were wondering!" piped up Nancy in a tiny voice. She couldn't speak very loud, as she and Nick were quite little, for they hadn't had time to wish themselves big again. "We were asleep under our Mushroom when something got us and brought us here."

"So that's it," nodded Mr. Pig. "I was out digging up truffles, and I must have got you by mistake."

"Are those truffles?" asked Nick, looking at the lumpy things.

"Yes, indeed, and they are the most delicious articles you ever ate," said
Mr. Pig enthusiastically. "I was told they grew thick in Topsy-Turvy Land, so I came here to live."

"They don't smell very delicious," said Nancy wrinkling her nose.

"Can you smell?" cried the pig delightedly.

"Yes, of course, we can," laughed the twins.

"Well, well, well, what luck!" exclaimed the pig, quickly slipping the twins into his sack again. "I need some good smellers to help me hunt, as I'm getting tired myself. My snout is nearly worn out with rooting." And away he started to the woods again. But he had forgotten to take along the Magical Mushroom, in fact, he hadn't seen him at all, and now, not intending to be left behind, the Mushroom gave a jump and landed on Mr. Pig's back.

Some more tomorrow.

TREATMENT OF ECZEMA.

The treatment of eczema usually presents a complicated problem. The causes of the disease are numerous,
frequently obscure, and when discovered are often difficult to remove.

The disease shows little tendency to get well by itself, but tends rather to persist, and to spread to neighboring or distant parts of the body, and to recur.

Although many cases of eczema respond well to local treatment alone, if the affected surface can be given absolute rest and kept constantly covered with a dressing, such ideal treatment can be rarely carried out, except in hospital patients. Moreover,
in many cases of eczema, the general health of a patient must be improved
before local treatment can be effective.

The treatment of eczema usually requires both local and constitutional measures, though sometimes internal treatment may be wholly ignored, and the disease may be successfully treated by local measures alone.

It is often necessary not only to relieve disease of other organs, but also to study the patient's occupation temperament habits of eating, drinking, bathing, sleeping, etc., before an obscure case of a stubborn eczema can be found and removed.

Q.—What is miner's consumption?
Is it dangerous? I was told that it was not the same as tuberculosis.

A.—Continuous breathing of the very fine, sharp particles of flint that constitute the dust in many metal mines produces a mechanical injury to the lungs, causing a disease peculiar to the mining industry, and known as miner's consumption, miner's phthisis, miner's asthma, silicosis, or, more accurately pneumoconiosis due to sil-iceous rock dust.

Being mechanically produced, miner's consumption is neither contagious nor infectious. The lung irritated, inflamed, and injured by the hard rock dust, becomes fibroid—that is,
there is developed throughout it a scar-like tissue, which interferes with the normal elasticity of the lung and prevents proper breathing.

There is gradual impairment of the working ability, owing to shortness of breath, with coughing, loss of weight and weakness.

A tuberculosis infection may take place at any stage of miner's consumption, and it is the opinion of the writer, that practically no cases die
without its being present.

Comet Humor

When the golf season opens the story of the golf ball comes again.
This class has many minor comets of humor; it is almost a Milky Way.
Here is one of the most typical and earliest of them all:

quit playing golf?"

"You don't tell me, Not MacGowan,
the Scotchman who has played golf
for 40 years?"

"Yep. That's the chap."

"What's the matter? Is he crippled?"

"Oh, no. He lost his golf ball."

Amateur gardeners will do well to

Vegetable oysters do not thrive

Prof. Spade believes, that while planting in the dark of the moon may produce satisfactory results in some instances, still better crops may be attained by planting in the dark of the soil.

Maybe you, too, have noticed there are more Maids on the front porch
than in the garden.

The best liars grow the biggest crops—when you hear them tell about it.

It isn't a dairy merely because you grow cowpeas and milkweeds in your garden. But your neighbor's chickens can't get over the idea that your garden is their pasture.

Still you have this consolation:
What the chickens steal the bugs
won't get later on.

After you've shaded for about ten minutes you begin to wonder if you haven't laid out too large a garden plot.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

I heard the wall panel click sharply as it snapped into its place behind me. I turned on the instant, for the sound of it, breaking the deep silence, was ominous. What I had heard had been the snap of a lock! I knew, without investigating, that I was a prisoner in that secret chamber!

Leaning against the panel in the wall, as if only so I could keep any hold upon the outside world, I surveyed my surroundings. The room was square. The floor was paved with square blocks of marble and it was covered with a square rug of a rare-Chinese design. I felt through the thick softness of the carpet with the sole of my thin pump for some unevenness in the floor, some spring or button upon which I had stepped accidentally, and set into motion the hidden mechanism of the wall panel.

The floor was faultlessly smooth. I couldn't detect the slightest hint of an electrical plug. I reached out a trembling hand and pushed against the false door with all my strength. Nothing moved. I tried the right-hand panel, then the left-hand panel. I rapped on the wall, but not even a faint echo betrayed the opening I sought.

"Jane Lorimer, you've done it this time," I said to myself. And I recalled all I had read about secret chambers; a famous one had been provided with a revolving floor, another had walls which turned swiftly around and around especially for the purpose of driving prisoners mad!

"Whatever else you may do, don't loose your head," I admonished myself, knowing perfectly well that I had at last achieved the most terrible of all of my adventures. "This room has been contrived expressly to bewilder its occupant," I decided. Looking around me, I discovered that the only way
I could tell on which side of the room I had entered was by my own proximity to the wall!

If that square room had been divided into triangles by diagonal lines drawn between its corners, each section, with all that it contained, would have been an exact duplicate of the other three. The panels of the wall were exquisitely carved—and all alike. The rug was a glorious gold and blue thing intricately webbed with interlocking circles; neither from its design nor from its shape could one determine one's directions. On each side of the room was a grouping of divans, chairs, tables and cushions and each cluster of furniture was exactly like the others. I reviewed all the descriptions of secret prisons of which I had ever read, and I couldn't find one which was more confusing than the simple, exactly ordered chamber wherein I stood.

I perceived the scheme of the thing at a glance; if the occupant turned heedlessly away from the entrance panel and lost his original bearings in his excitement, he—or she—never, never would be able to tell where to find the panel which moved like a door.

"I've just one grain of sense left," thought I. With that I took a hairpin from my braids, bent it like a horseshoe and hung it to a carved leaf above the treacherous panel which had so lately clicked behind me.

"I certainly hope you bring me luck," I remarked to the horseshoe. "If it were not for you, I'd soon be as lost in this room as a redbait on the ocean under a cloudy sky. I'd soon be walking around and around the circles on that queer rug, I suppose. I wonder if one starves before one goes mad—in a place like this?"

Then I laughed at myself. Already I felt hysterical, it appeared. In all the long history of my misadventures, I had never been hungry, I had never suffered. There was no reason why my good fortune should hold out a little longer.

Or was it inevitable that one should come to the end of one's luck at last?

Was that the idea which chilled me and made me shudder? Or was it the knowledge that not a soul in all the wide world knew what had become of me?

Jesuit Father Hits Lady Fair's Gowns; Ruining Their Souls

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, March 27. — Prevailing fashions in women's gowns were vigorously assailed in a sermon recently by Rev. Bernard Vaughan, the widely known Jesuit father, whose essays and sermons on morality and home life have for the past 20 years attracted international attention.

"In days gone by ladies dressed for dinner, now they undress for it," he declared. "Women's clothing ought to serve the three purposes of decency, of warmth and of ornament. Women in their mad craze for what is known as 'emotional gowns' sin against every canon of good taste. Such dresses are immodest, unhealthy and as ugly as they are expensive. Girls who follow the up-to-date fashions are ruining their own and their neighbor's souls as well as their own bodies."

Holy Week Fete in Spain Was Brilliant

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Madrid, April 1.—Extreme brilliance marked Holy Week ceremonies at the Royal Palace today. Escorted to the palace chapel by a guard attired in gala uniforms, King Alfonso, Queen Victoria and Queen Mother Marie Christine attended mass. The men were in full regalia of the various orders of Knighthood, while all the ladies wore white mantillas.

Later the king washed the feet of 12 blind men, while the queen performed the same office for twelve beggar women, who, after the sovereigns had broken bread with them, left the palace bearing baskets of food.

MISS NEW YORK IN EASTER WEEK She Has Choice of Hats, Small or Large, of Georgette, Straw or Satin

Odd hats of all sizes and shapes are winning favor.

er must have an exceptionally good profile to wear it, as you can see.

While small hats are most in evidence, more large ones are seen than the milliners anticipated. Already some in horsehair, perhaps two colors, say black with an underbrim of blue, are seen at the theater. They are simply trimmed with a band and very likely a streamer of velvet ribbon and a small cluster of French flowers. White horsehair and leghorns will be worn early with silk frocks. Some large hats are faced with printed georgette or silk, or have brims entirely of georgette, as that worn by Helen Maxwell.

Long Veils Are Swirled Around Small Hats, and Wound About Neck.

BY CORA MOORE,
New York's Fashion Authority.
New York, April 2.—Unless you have seen them with your own eyes, as the children say, you never would believe so many kinds of hats could be made as Easter has brought out, and though in New York everyone has a new Easter hat, it is not the first one of the season, for New York has been wearing straw hats since December, much to the millinery association's disgust.

Many of the small hats show a combination of satin or duvetyne and straw and are worn with long veils swirled around the hat and then wound several times around the neck. "Peggy" veils, especially, and soft, silky, large-meshed things they are. Some small sailors are seen, very shiny of straw, and with self-colored bands.

I have seen no smarter hat anywhere than the one Jeanne Eagels wears in "The Wonderful Thing." You may see for yourself from the illustration how unusual it is, yet not exaggerated. It is a Vogue hat with a long, thick glycerined ostrich plume drooping from the center of the crown, half way down her back.

The long upturned side brim, as in the hat worn by Rose Delores, is still another effective model, but its wear-

Shipping Board is Failure Says Man Who Was Part of It

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Calif., April 2. — The United States shipping board, as such, was a failure H. M. Robinson, former member of the shipping board, said last night at a dinner given by the World Traders of Los Angeles. "The effort of the government to operate 2,000 merchant ships was a perfect absurdity and all persons who are familiar with shipping and the operation of ships declare that the operation of more than forty vessels by any one concern is next to impossible," he said.

Mr. Robinson declared the sale of the government operated ships would mean a comparatively small loss.

"The ships constructed by the government have cost about $2,500,000,000 and when sold will net the government about 2,000,000,000," he said.

Republican leaders said the more important war time acts and powers which would be repealed automatically with passage of the resolution included: War time prohibition; Lever food and fuel control law with provisions against profiteering; espionage act; selective service law; authorization for loans of ten billion dollars to allies; control over all shipping; authorization for president to use armed force to prevent interference with interstate or foreign commerce; licensing the use of explosives; authorization of a system of priority shipments; authorization of an employment service in labor department; control over patents; war housing act; a moratorium protecting civil rights of men while in the service and authorization of an embargo of imports in the discretion of the president.

The trading with the enemy act would be continued until Germany agrees to provisions of the resolution. SH-H-H! THERE'S AN AWFUL KICK IN THE JIMSON-WEED

Southwest Indians brewing "jump steady" out of jimson-weed.

Indians of the southwest and their Mexican associates use jimson-weeds in making a variety of "jump steady," which has long been famous among these aborigines and half-breeds.

Away back during the days of Bacon's Rebellion, the intoxicating properties of jimson or Jamestown-weed were first brought to light. A company of British soldiers sent to Jamestown to quell the insurrection in 1675 gathered large quantities of the strange weed and cooked them as greens. As a consequence of eating the jimson-weeds, they were intoxicated for 11 days.

The jimson-weed yields atropine as pure as that derived from bella donna. The daturine obtained from the weed is a perfect substitute for the alkaloid atropine. Its use has been commercialized and recently one large concern has used 1,500,000 pounds of the jimson plants for the manufacture of atropine. The jimson-weed belongs to the solanum family which includes the deadly nightshade, belladonna, henbane and mandragora of the Old World as well as tobacco, Irish potatoes and tomatoes of the New World.

Charge Stepfather Made Many Advances

St. Louis, Mo., April 1.—Joseph F. Woodlock made numerous attempts to assault his stepdaughter, Ursula Broderick, 16 years old, it was testified to at the girl's trial today on a charge of first degree murder for killing Woodlock April 14, last.

Mrs. Lillian Woodlock, mother of the girl and also under indictment for her husband's death, asserted Woodlock drank heavily and when under the influence of intoxicants made repeated attempts to attack the girl. When sober, however, she continued, he regretted his actions and always apologized to Ursula.

The girl who also killed her father, Thomas P. Broderick, 4 years ago, has declared she shot Woodlock to defend her honor.

On one occasion Mrs. Woodlock said, she visited the prosecuting attorney's office to complain of her husband's threats against the girl, but the office was closed.

The state is attempting to prove Mrs. Woodlock and the girl plotted to murder Woodlock.

THE "TOWER" ROLLER-PACKER-MULCHER

Our Roller-Packer-Mulcher is the best land roller on the market. Roll your oats and wheat in the spring, when the ground cracks open, and notice the results when you thresh. Use the roller to prepare your corn ground for planting. The loose sprocket wheel keeps the roller clean; it not only crushes the clods but it is a subsoil packer and preserves the moisture.

THE "TOWER" PULVERIZER

Our 6 and 10-foot Pulverizers are the best made. They make a perfect seed bed for planting.

THE "TOWER" ONE ROW CULTIVATOR

Surface cultivation of corn is recognized by Corn Growers all over the Corn Belt of America as the best method.

By this system you save the corn roots, preserve moisture and raise more corn and better corn on the same amount of ground with less labor.

THE "TOWER" TWO ROW CULTIVATOR

The Tower Surface Two Row Cultivator is used very extensively and very successfully in the cultivation of corn. In using this tool the farmer should take the two rows as they were planted by the planter. One man and three horses can do practically the same work as two men and four horses, thus eliminating not only one horse but also one man, and in this day of high-priced labor this elimination of a high-priced man is valuable to the farmer. The Two Row Surface Cultivator does the same kind of work as the One Row.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS' DEPT. TO PRESENT ARTISTS NEXT THURSDAY EVE

Artistic Musicales Under Their Auspices is Announced.

Much interest is being taken in the concert to be given in the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, April 8, at 8:15, under the auspices of and for the benefit of the boys' division of the Y. M. C. A., and a big crowd is assured. The boys are talking it and are highly pleased to present Miss Bernice Schalker, Chicago, contralto; S. A. Sandeen, Rockford, tenor, and Miss Elizabeth Raymond, of this city, pianist to Dixon music lovers. The program will be high-class in every respect. Miss Schalker has appeared in Dixon before. After a recent concert in Chicago the Evening Post made mention as follows:

"Bernice Schalker sang, 'A Don Fatale' from Verdi's Don Carlos with an understanding of its musical values with a voice of rich quality." Music News, a high-grade musical publication says: "Miss Schalker possesses a full resonant voice of pleasing quality, and is to all appearances a student of songs, for she was very adept at bringing out the various moods and characters."

Leavenworth Times comments: "Bernice Schalker is the possessor of a beautiful contralto voice of great range." Starbird Sandeen is a prominent tenor and Rockford is sure to please his Dixon audience. The Rockford Morning Star states:

"Mr. Sandeen has already made for himself a place among the singers of Rockford that none may usurp, and 'Morning Hyman,' Henschel, and 'Spring Night' by Schuman were each given a most musical reading. Mr. Sandeen is possessed of a remarkable tenor voice and all his essays are done with an appreciation of the artistic requirements. The applause which followed his numbers was so spontaneous as to indicate the approbation of his audience. At each appearance he displays a steadily increasing development in which his friends rejoice."

Miss Elizabeth Raymond's piano numbers will be an important feature of the program. In this combination Dixon people will have an opportunity to hear the musical treat of this season. Thursday evening, April 8, 8:15 p. m. at the Presbyterian church.

Yesterday Physical Director Kuhn took a bunch of boys on a hike to Lowell park. They took their time and got there about 3:30. Borax may be used to clean porcelain and enameled washbowls tub. The constant use of scouring powder is not advisable, and even the best housekeeper sometimes "gets out" of supplies. Borax will clean quickly and efficiently.

Dampen the scouring cloth with warm water, sprinkle over the powdered borax and wipe out the wash-bowl with the cloth. Rinse the cloth, wipe the bowl with the rinsed-out cloth and the deed is done.

A box of powdered borax is a convenient article to keep in the bathroom, for its uses are many.

Menu for Tomorrow.

BREAKFAST—Grapefruit, fried mush, syrup, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Brown hash, spring salad, wafers, tea.

My Own Recipes.

While fried mush always makes me think of corn meal mush there are other mushes. Any cooked cereal may be molded and sliced and fried. There is often a bit of cooked cereal left from breakfast and it is surely waste to throw it away. These left-overs may be used in puddings or fried or even reheated with fresh porridge.

BROWNED HASH.

1 cup cold cooked meat.
2 cups mashed potatoes.
1-3 cup boiling water.
4 tablespoons bacon fat.
1 teaspoon minced onion.
1 tablespoon minced parsley.
Salt and pepper.
Melt one tablespoonful of fat in a frying pan. Mix all ingredients and spread smoothly in pan. Cook over a slow fire so it will brown and not burn. Do not stir. Cook about 30 minutes. Fold and serve like an omelet.

SPRING SALAD.

2 sour apples.
1 bunch new onions.
Mayonnaise dressing.

Strips of pimento.
Hearts of lettuce.
Pare and cut apples into dice. Wash onions and mince very finely. Mix apple and onion thoroughly and add enough mayonnaise to make a cream mixture. Arrange on hearts of lettuce and garnish with pimento. A few chopped nuts may be sprinkled over each salad if desired.

Scrap Iron Thrown Half Mile By Blast, Hurt Davenport Lady.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Davenport, Ia., April 2.—Hurling a quarter mile through the air a five pound piece of metal, thrown by a blast of dynamite, crashed through the rear vestibule of a street car Wednesday afternoon and struck Mrs. Paul Dice, No. 8 Colomade Apartments, on the hand. She is under the care of a physician at her home, but is not seriously injured.

After striking the woman's hand, the mass of metal tore through the opposite side of the car and buried itself in the ground.

The accident occurred at 3:20 p. m. Investigation showed that a steel projectile had come from the rear of the Davenport Locomotive Works, over 1200 feet away. Roy LaGrange and Ed Charles, sub-contractors, working for L. Livingston of Rock Island, had the job of breaking up old castings. Livingston was arrested Wednesday night but was released.

Who Should Be President of the United States?

"General Wood is a national figure and has been one for over twenty years. His patriotism has been expressed in constant service of the nation as administrator and soldier. It is a record which the Republican party could proudly assert and it establishes General Wood's name in American history regardless of the political events of the present year."

—THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Editorial, Mar. 25, 1920.

YOU'RE going to vote for somebody for President—at the Preference Primary, Tuesday, April 13. It is your one opportunity to let the country know where you stand. When you come right down to it, remember that you really will be voting for yourself when you vote for the man you believe in and the man you want. You'll be voting for yourself, because he will be the man you want to represent you and your ideas in the White House.

No primary in the history of Illinois has meant so much to the average man in this state. The "Favorite Son" idea and blind partisanship should have nothing to do with this question.

It is beyond that; more than that.

You want the man whose character and abilities have been proved in the actual conduct of great national and international affairs; not merely tried in the problems of any one state. This is the one time of all others when an outstanding national figure should be selected—Leonard Wood is the man.

LEONARD WOOD
For President

LEONARD WOOD has a world-wide, proved reputation as an administrator. He does not invite disorder by vacillation or indecision—his clear, well-defined purposes avoid trouble and render force unnecessary.

One of the greatest gifts in statesmanship as well as in business is the ability to choose the right man for the right work. Leonard Wood has this ability. In Cuba from the very start he chose Cubans as members of his cabinet. That is one of the reasons they loved him—that is why they worship him to this day.

The Encyclopedia Britannica flatly states that Leonard Wood struck off the shackles of military control to which the colony had been previously subjected and converted it into a nation governed for the Cubans and by the Cubans.

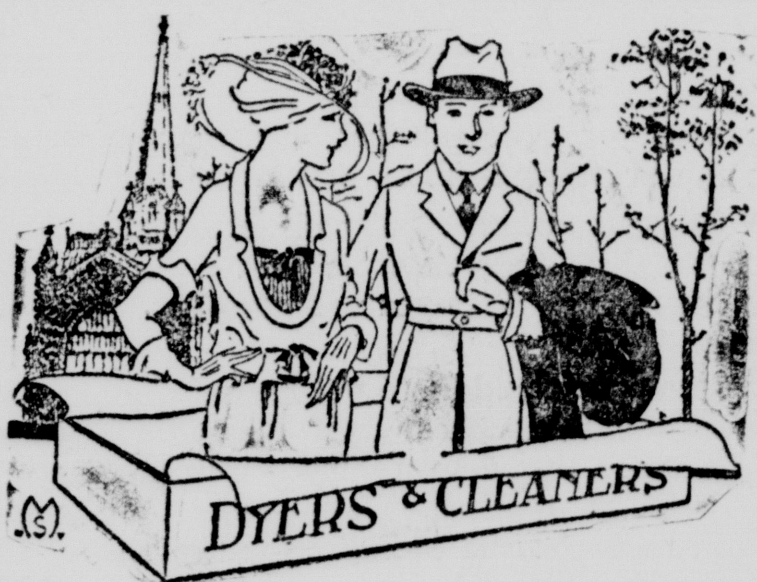

This then is the record of Leonard Wood in Cuba—a record of the far-sighted administrator and statesman—yes, a nation builder. His work in the Philippines is equally as marvelous as in Cuba. Theodore Roosevelt said of his work: "It would be difficult to find anywhere a finer record of successful accomplishment." In this crisis of the world's history we need a man for President with the experiences and qualifications of a nation builder and a nation restorer.

The secret of success of Leonard Wood is that he knows men, he knows the world and its peoples. His work for Uncle Sam has taken him around the globe. He is a man of peace and yet of courage. Above all else—he is 100% American—strong, rugged and dependable. You need, the country needs, Leonard Wood now, just as it needed Abraham Lincoln sixty years ago.

We ask you to resolve to go to the polls Tuesday, April 13, and show your belief and confidence in Leonard Wood. The whole country is waiting to hear what Illinois is going to say and it is for you to do the saying. They are relying upon your good judgment and common sense. You personally are responsible. You owe to them and to your conscience to vote your real preference uninfluenced by local pride or prejudice, or local politics.

We ask you to do your part because we believe Leonard Wood is the man you want.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 2.—A full and important program will confront the council of the League of Nations when it assembles in Rome, April 27. Young Girl's Fate in Hands of Jury

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—Whether Ursula Frederick, 16 years old, shot and killed her stepfather, Joseph F. Woodlock, as he lay sleeping in their home here April 14 last, or whether, as she contends, she fired the shots that caused Woodlock's death in defense of her honor, are the questions that must be answered by the 12 jury men in whose hands the fate of the girl rests.

The case went to the jury last night, Judge Klene, presiding, instructing for a sealed verdict. After two hours of deliberation no agreement had been reached and court was adjourned. Judge Klene ordered the jury to report at 11 o'clock this morning.

The defendant, according to Attorney I. Steyer, a young girl who has never faced a first degree murder charge in this state. Conviction on the charge, carries with it a sentence of life imprisonment, the killing occurring before the capital punishment law was restored in Missouri.

The Sugar Situation as others see it

The Central Sugar Co. says: The market is in a very strong condition and we would advise an immediate purchase. It is practically impossible to buy Sugars at present.

As the W. F. Childs Company (sugar brokers) sees the market: We advised you that there were no Sugar stocks in the hands of either consumer, retailer or jobber and that in our opinion Sugar would not be plentiful for the balance of this year.

Raw Sugars have rapidly advanced and are now higher than at any time this year.

We strongly urge you to enter your orders at once.

As we understand there will be less Sugar for canning this summer than the last three years. If it is scarce, do you think it will be cheaper? We do not think so. We can sell a few sacks yet, best Granulated Sugar per 100 lbs. for$19.50

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sorrowful complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

In 2000 Counties This Month

The Forces of the Church of Christ Will Gather To Face the Facts

In 2000 counties in the United States the pastors and laymen of 30 great denominations will meet in conference this month.

It is the kind of conference that generals hold before a critical engagement; that business men hold before entering a new market. A conference of judgment, not emotion; a clear-eyed facing of the facts.

A Survey that Business Men Must Admire

For more than a year hundreds of workers have been quietly engaged in making a scientific survey of the mission fields, and of America county by county.

The facts developed are startling. No such picture of America's religious situation has ever before been drawn.

On the basis of these surveys thirty Protestant denominations are uniting in a

Nation Wide Cooperative Campaign

Each of the thirty denominations has its own "Forward Movement" organized and officered. The Interchurch World Movement is the clearing house for all of these.

It is the agency which the churches have created to avoid duplication, to foster cooperation and make sure that every man and dollar render the utmost service possible.

The month of April will be devoted to making the facts of the survey known to America; in the week of April 25th-May 2nd, will come a united simultaneous financial campaign.

Whether You Are Inside the Church or Out

To every man and every woman who loves his country, these 2000 county conferences are vitally important.

For the facts developed by this great survey show vividly what forces are at work in America—and what kind of a country this country is to be.

See that the pastor of your church appoints delegates. Any pastor can tell you the conference place and date. Or write direct to the
